Hi,

I have received an email from FSCS mentioning that they will compensate me with a total of £5,118.97 , which is great news :)

I know Hallbrook will take 30% of the amount as fees, will you let me know when the remaining of money will be sent to my account?

Let me know if you need further information from my side.

Thanks,

M

Dear Ms Brooksby,

I am delighted that your Company has achieved a compensation award of £10,511.82.
Thank you for your cheque for £7,358.27

Out of curiosity, I would please like to see copies of the correspondence with the FSCS including a breakdown of the calculation so that I can see for myself how the final figure was arrived at.

Dear Mr. Edward Payne,

Many thanks for your recent telephone call making me aware of the award I was about to receive from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

As I'm sure you're aware by now the compensation amounted to £3504.60 with Hallbrook taking their agreed fee.

I just wish to say many thanks for the work you have undertaken on my behalf and to wish you and yours success and good health in these worrying times.

Yours Sincerely

Tom

I have just come across this in my Draft folder although I wrote about 3 weeks ago and must have never sent it. My apologies for this but the sentiment remains the same.

I write to acknowledge receipt of your letter and your payment into my bank account with regard to my claim against Bridge Hall Stockbrokers Ltd. This came as a great and most welcome surprise having had this claim rejected several times, including your original attempt. Many congratulations and my thanks.

Dear Mr & Mrs

FSCS Reference: PB22-

As per your ongoing claim against Direct Market Touch Limited the Financial Services Compensation Scheme have now concluded their assessment and I am pleased to confirm that they have awarded you compensation.

Compensation awarded £27,741.58.

Our Fee @ 25% + VAT where applicable £6,935.39.

Client award £20,806.19.

As your representatives, we receive a copy of the decision letter outlining any compensation awarded and how it was calculated and you should also now have received a copy of the same.

We are currently reviewing the calculations and where appropriate we will appeal the award if we believe that the settlement offer is insufficient.

Compensation awards are paid directly into the Hallbrook Partners segregated client account and once funds have cleared we will deduct our agreed fee and as per the instructions you have already provided, we will issue you with a cheque for the balance or make settlement by direct bank transfer.

In the interim, please do not hesitate to contact your claim adviser on 0115 8221850 if you have any queries or would like to discuss the matter.

Yours sincerely,

Claire Brooksby

Dear Mr Carroll

I am grateful for your help in obtaining compensation in respect of the firms that you have successfully claimed.

My memory is not as good as I would hope as I am now approaching 83 and I am beginning to wonder whether I'm confused about Pacific Continental. Perhaps you have definite information that I dealt with this company. I definitely lost some money which was described by the fraud investigator, who came to see me, as a 'boiler room scam'. He said I might be called as a witness – but I never was.

The other company that I dealt with – and with which I am probably confused – was Pacific Media.

Thank you again for your help. It is much appreciated

Kind regards

Dear Mr Porter,

Thank you for sending me your cheque for £3,215.23 received as compensation from FSCS in relation to my investment in ARC.

As you know, this was money that we had written off as a bad investment some while ago and had not expected to recover any part of it, so your intervention was timely and much appreciated. Throughout the process Hallbrook has handled itself in a highly professional manner, explained the issues clearly and kept us fully informed.
